

In celebration of
Native American Heritage Month

The Bench Is For All

Panel Presentation

Monday, November 15, 2021
12:15 – 1:30 pm

Webinar Registration Link

Guest Speakers:

Lauren J. King, Keynote

Confirmed as United States District Court Judge for the Western District of Washington,
Citizen of the Muscogee (Creek) Nation,
Principal, Foster Garvey PC

Tip Wonhoff

Deputy General Counsel for the Office of Governor Jay Inslee

Judge Jason Poydras

2021 Appointee to the King County Superior Court

Aileen Tsao

Attorney and Co-Chair of the Joint Asian Judicial Evaluations Committee

Questions & Answers with all panelists

Learn different ways to pursue a judicial career, including through the gubernatorial appointment process and the federal nomination process.

Learn about the judicial ratings process.

The bench might be right for you!

King County

Sponsored by the Superior Court's [Courts & Community
Committee](#)

Upon taking her oath, Lauren J. King will be the first Native American federal judge in Washington state's history, the second in the United States Courts for the Ninth Circuit, and only the fourth active Native American federal judge in the entire United States.

This no-cost program is open to all.

A livestream viewing option will be available on TVW.

NATIVE
AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Registration URL: https://kingcounty.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_pKXof2v_TpCX1eyK5NfKAO